Handicapped Access and Parking

There are two options for parking for the disabled:

On the south side of Fifth Street close to the Fifth Street entrance to the building there are two parking spaces (with no meters or charges) for vehicles with disabled placards.

In addition, the commercial parking lot at 524 S. Flower Street has the disabled parking symbol on its sign. The spaces are available immediately to the right as you enter the garage.

Validated parking for people using the Central Library is available in the 524 S. Flower Street garage beneath the Maguire Gardens. To obtain a validation, you must show your Los Angeles Public Library card at the Information Desk on the first floor during regular Library hours. Library cards are available free of charge. The validation is a barcode imprinted on the parking ticket. Validated Parking Rates apply.
